

Emotionally Intelligent Traffic Sign Comments from entries and those that evaluated the signage

It is...

- Awesome.
- Simple but still shows the same message all the signs are trying to give.
- Really cute and sends a good message.
- Very creative and it tells the driver about the sign.
- Creative and gets the message across.
- Attractive and to the point.
- Very colorful and it is very funny. Kids like it and people will listen to it and smile at the same time.
- Easy to read while driving with a good message.
- Truthful! People don't realize that a few seconds "saved" could really cost them.
- Attention grabbing and good colors.
- Clever and cute.
- Easy to read. Good message.
- Very clever and direct.
- Simple but makes a great statement.
- A great statement and it's really intelligent.
- Brightly colored and clearly written.
- Cute and it helps me be careful.
- Very artistic and stopping for pedestrians is very important.
- A clever saying and clear message. In a kid's writing. Easy to read and see from a car. Has colors, but not too much.
- Funny and cute and it tells cars to slow down.
- Funny and it's still safe.
- Telling you what could happen if you did disobey the rules.
- Funny and sends a great worded message by catching people's eyes.
- A clever phrase that I think would convince someone that driving slower is worth it
- Showing what will happen if you are driving too fast, and like it says on the sign you may hurt humans or wild animals. I think that also a good influence for soon to be drivers.
- A good message to drivers and to be soon drivers.
- Very clever, colorful, and will be readable from the road.
- Straight to the point and it is awesome and I don't like the others.

Because...

- I think it is very colorful and creative too.
- It expresses the inner values of itself.
- It inspires me.
- It makes the drivers and everyone think about the sign so they will remember it.
- It has great meaning and the picture is beautiful.
- It has lots of color and it will draw attention to drivers.
- It shows the slow down message in a fun way.
- I really like it because it looks realistic and it just spoke to me.
- It makes people more alert!
- To me it makes a bold statement!
- It expresses great detail and gets the point across to be safe while driving.
- Wild animals are very important and so are humans. You will feel bad if you hurt either so drive safe. Also, you will feel like you're saving lives if you stop.
- I can tell it was made by a kid and that's very sweet and honest.
- There aren't too many words and it's easy to read...quickly.
- It shows you to not rush, save lives instead.
- We all want our own children to be safe.
- It expresses what this contest is all about - slow down!
- It catches my attention and they used a great saying.
- It reminds people that every person has people who love them and who want them to come home safely. Has that emotional quality we are looking for.
- People will think that a kid made it and start to laugh and slow down.
- It tells what happens when you speed.
- It points out to you, and it's like yelling at you.
- If you hit a person they could be seriously injured.
- Slowing down saves lives
- It has bright colors and they could see it easy.
- It tells you that you should slow down and it's really big so drivers can see it.
- It brings a strong message to slow down.
- It made me feel serious and I also thought it was funny.
- It makes a point. Finishing safe is what every person and pedestrian wants.
- It would really make me slow down if I was driving a car.

